SuperMoney Team

The SuperMoney.com team is a diverse group of financial and internet industry veterans all working together to help Americans super power their finances. Please read on to learn more about SuperMoney's super heroes.

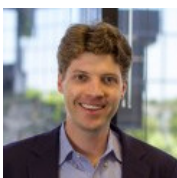

Miron Lulic Co-Founder

Miron is a serial entrepreneur who is passionate about technological innovation. At SuperMoney, he leads all product and technology development. Prior to founding SuperMoney, Miron held a technology leadership role at Specific Media / Myspace where his focus was on big data analytics. Miron graduated with honors from University of Toronto. When he's not improving America's personal finances, he's a husband, dad, and weekend triathlete.

Jesse E. Stockwell Co-Founder

The vast majority of Jesse's career has been spent in consumer finance where he has been the co-founder of numerous firms related to helping individuals in need of financial guidance. Jesse helps to set SuperMoney's long-term goals and makes sure we get our much needed message out to consumers. He is an ardent believer in leading by example and lives by the Captian Money's philosophy that "smart decisions make smart people".

Harry H. Langenberg Co-Founder

Harry's background includes over 10 years of financial services experience, including investment banking for technology-based firms at Merrill Lynch & Co. in San Francisco, CA. He is a graduate of both the Wharton Business School and the School of Engineering and Applied Science at the University of Pennsylvania, where he received his B.S. in Economics, concentrating in finance and B.S. of Engineering, concentrating in systems engineering.
